Dalton Sparks

Dalton,
We would like to thank you for blessing our family for the last 18 years. You have always been one of the most caring, friendly and concerned young men we've ever known, and have always felt rewarded just for having you. Remember your dreams, keep them alive, keep them close because that's the only way dreams can ever come true. Be faithful in all that you do. Keep family & God at all times and everything else will fall in place. Work hard and have a joyful full life. We love you so much, Mom, Dad, Josh, Caleb

PS Grandpa and Grandma Sparks would be proud of you.
Job well done, Grandpa Phillip
Congratulations, Love Grandma Gale

Jordan Hagood

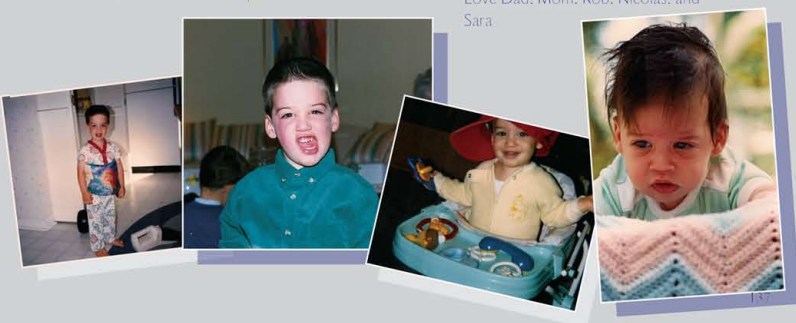

My Dear Jordan,
Well here you are graduating from high school, all grown up. It has been a joy watching you become the person you are. I wish so much for you and your future and know you can achieve whatever you set out for.
I am proud of you Jordan and I love you very much,
-Mom

Jordan,
It seems just like yesterday that you were the little boy that was grandma's little shadow. Time flies & you have grown up and are such a funny, smart, caring and handsome young man that has an amazing future. We love & are very proud of you.
Love,
Uncle Jerry, Aunt Toni, Paige & Caden

Jordan,
I am having a hard time picturing CHS without you. My mornings at Cleveland have become a ritual of you, Dr. Franks, and the gang having a chat in my room. I have never laughed so hard. The conversation will continue, but you will never be replaced. You have a way of telling it as if it is or like you think it is...either way you have made me laugh till I cried. I count you as a friend. I know you have a life full of success ahead of you. I can't wait to hear all about it. Send me a text...I promise I will respond.
Best wishes,
Jennifer Dillard

Ryan Livolsi

Congratulations Ryan! We are so proud of all you accomplished and of the man you are becoming. May you continue to succeed in every part of your life.
Love Dad, Mom, Rob, Nicolas, and Sara

Theme: Where everybody knows your name

Taking care to create beautiful ads makes the students and their families feel special while leaving a nice impression in the yearbook. On this spread, the three different sizes of ads, and the submission of a great photo, led to a beautiful dominant image on the page. Even the smaller ads are designed to give enough space for family members to offer their congratulations and words of encouragement.
