Journalism Ethics Mod 10

Quiz

uden	nt's Name:
nswe	er either True or False for the following statement. (4 Points Per Question)
1.	As a journalist, you should keep in mind your rights as well as your responsibilities.
2.	Ethical journalism remains the same regardless of the form or medium.
3.	High school journalism students are exempt from having to follow	th rules of ethics because students are not actual reporters.
4.	It is OK to take pictures of famous people and "Photoshop" student	ts into them.
5.	At a public school, a coach can stop you from printing and publishir	าg pictures of his wrestlers losing their matches.
6.	Reporters should cover all sides of a story fairly and fully.
7.	Reporters should identify themselves as representing the yearbook	ζ.
8.	It is acceptable for journalists to fabricate minor details in feature stories, but not in main body stories in the yearbook.
9.	Journalist should never audio record an interview because it makes	S sources feel uncomfortable and less willing to speak freely.
10.	Using pictures in the yearbook that damage one's reputation is a violation of good photo ethics.
11.	Taking pictures of people doing inappropriate things is a violation of	of good photo ethics.

12.	Taking controversial picture is a violation of good photo ethics.
13.	It is acceptable to reproduce, distribute, display, or perform a protected work if you obtain the author's permission.
14.	Journalists should add their speculation to stories to make them mor complete.
15.	Coverage in the yearbook should reflect all aspects and voices of the student body and should not be limited to those who are on the staff.
16.	It is not the responsibility of the printer to find errors or catch questionable content. All content is the responsibility of the staff.
17.	A work is automatically copyrighted when it is completed or placed into a "fixed" form.
18.	It is OK to put a "name that song" spread in the yearbook as long as you only use one or two lines of the song.
19.	Journalists should not write stories that cast sources in a negative light.
20.	Copying a picture from a news organization's website to use in your yearbook is OK.
21.	Any publication has the right to refuse advertising before a formal contract is signed between the advertiser and the publication.
22.	You can legally take photos of people in a public setting and publish them in your yearbook without permission.
23.	It is recommend that if you're creating an ad for a local business for your yearbook, ask those appearing in the ad to sign a simple model release form that states they agree to appear in the ad.

24.		Public form is a system of moral values, principles of right or good conduct.
25.		The first duty of every journalist, including those producing a yearbook, is to tell the tru	outh by producing an accurate account of events.

Walsworth yearbooks